

A Taste of Ireland

Ready to explore?

October 23-31, 2024 - (Registration open until July 30)

Find new culinary perspectives in Ireland

Ireland's rich culinary history can be found across its towns and cities, from the incredible seafood along the Wild Atlantic Way, to the street markets and food festivals of Dublin and Donegal. This trip is a chance to see and taste it all in person, and learn about the people and places that shaped our gastronomic landscape.

This course in Ireland explores how Irish food culture has changed and grown over centuries, influenced by factors such as immigration, emigration, and other cultural paradigms. There are many narratives we share with the U.S., including fascinating comparisons with our history, customs and traditions.

In association with

Highlights include:

- Classes on Irish Culture & history including the folklore and tradition, mythology and customs of food and drink
- Visit to Irish Distilleries for Whiskey tasting, Irish craft breweries, Farmer's Markets & Organic Food Centers, bakeries and dairies
- Sample the delicious Irish seafood culture along the Wild Atlantic Way - including lunch on one of our off-shore Gaelic-speaking islands
- Includes a ticket to the 'Flavours of Donegal Food Festival' in the beautiful harbour town of Killybegs (2 days)
- Every day- eat at the best of Irish food venues including top restaurants, street food, gastropubs, delis and traditional pubs. Enjoy the best of Irish music and culture as we

Acceptance and deposit ($99) deadline: July 30 2024

-The program fee of $2300 (incl. deposit) includes local transportation, lodging, most meals and 2-day ticket to Flavours of Donegal Food Festival, classes, workshops and demonstrations.

(Airfare not included- trip begins & ends in Dublin.)

For more information scan the QR code or contact info@isaireland.com

Discover a rich culinary history

Ireland's food industry has gone from strength to strength over the last few decades, becoming one of Europe's premier destinations for gastronomic adventures. With a veritable smorgasbord of talented chefs, incredible local produce, and second-to-none hospitality - Ireland is the perfect place to learn about European food culture

Experience a new culture

Immerse yourself in Irish culture; the food, the people, the music and the landscapes. We'll visit cities and rural towns, eat at Irish restaurants, and meet people from across the island. Learn about the country's culinary history, with visits to the Flavours of Donegal Food Festival in historic Killybegs and other important locations

Explore beautiful cities, rural towns and countryside

Whether its beaches or mountains, cities or villages, Ireland has some of the most beautiful landscapes in the world. Visit the beautiful Glencar waterfall, castles from hundreds of years ago, and visit Gaelic-speaking islands off of Ireland's coast.

Acceptance and deposit ($99) deadline: July 30, 2023
-The program fee of $2300 (incl. deposit) includes local transportation, lodging, most meals and 2-day ticket to Flavours of Donegal Food Festival, classes, workshops and demonstrations.
(Airfare not included- trip begins & ends in Dublin.)
For more information scan the QR code or contact info@isaireland.com

